Carlo Senore, MD

WG member

Medical Doctor, senior epidemiologist, at the Centre for Cancer Prevention in Turin (Italy). Director of the coordinating committee of the Piedmont Region cancer screening program.

Main research interests encompass cancer screening, primary prevention and health technology assessment. Broad experience in design, implementation and analysis of randomized trials evaluating screening and primary prevention interventions, development of clinical guidelines and implementation of quality control projects aimed at assessing quality of treatment of cancer. Focus of activity is on colorectal cancer screening evaluation and implementation.

Collaboration in the development of pilots projects of lung cancer screening in Italy as well as in the definition of requirements for the development of regional programs within the action plan for introducing screening for new cancer sites within the Italian National Prevention Plan 2026-2031
ICSN Chair-Elect; co-chair of the CRC interest group of the International Cancer Screening Network (ICSN).
Invited specialist - Screening group - European Code Against Cancer (ECAC V Ed).
Member of the working group of the European Commission Initiative on Colorectal Cancer.
Past-president of the Italian Group for ColoRectal cancer Screening.
Invited specialist, in the preparation of the Preamble to the IARC Handbooks of Cancer Prevention.
Member of the scientific team and responsible for the CRC screening section of the second European Screening Report.
Member of the literature group and co-author of three chapters of the European guidelines for quality assurance in colorectal cancer screening (IARC 2010).