1. BACKGROUND

1.1. The European Commission Initiative on Breast Cancer

In 2008, the European Parliament Resolution¹ called on the European Commission (EC) to develop European accreditation/certification programmes for cancer screening, diagnosis, and treatment based on European guidelines. In response, the European Commission Initiative on Breast Cancer (ECIBC) was launched by the EC and started the activities in 2015.

The key pillars of the ECIBC are the development of the European Guidelines for Breast Cancer Screening and Diagnosis and a European Quality Assurance (QA) scheme covering the entire care pathway. For each pillar, a working group was set-up: the Guideline Development Group (GDG) and the Quality Assurance Scheme Development Group (QASDG).

The members of both working groups were selected via an open call. The developed guidelines and requirements for breast cancer services are publicly accessible from the website of the European Commission's Joint Research Centre (JRC)². The guidelines are already undergoing regular updates and the QA scheme is being piloted in real setting to enhance the future applicability across Europe considering different structures.

1.2. The ECIBC Expert Pool

The European Commission intends to establish an expert pool for ECIBC supporting the activities of the working groups with specific expertise needed during the process. In particular, the expert pool will be used for:

1. Eventual nominations of additional working group members and/or replacement of current working group members as and if needed. The activities of the working groups are carried out via online and on-site meetings.
2. Nominations as subgroup members. The subgroups work primarily on healthcare questions, developing proposals for the recommendations and/or requirements using systematic reviews provided by independent external experts.
3. Nominations as external experts. External experts shall contribute to specific tasks with limited duration, when additional ad-hoc expertise is required. The mandate of an external expert will end when the specific tasks will be concluded. These activities will mainly be performed through online meetings.

The expertise list to be covered by the ECIBC expert pool, which is subject to applications is attached as Annex I.

<https://healthcare-quality.jrc.ec.europa.eu/>

In case a member of the expert pool is chosen for any of the future needs, the JRC will seek consent of the expert before nomination providing details on the topic, the expected workload and duration.

The experts appointed to one of the working groups or to a subgroup shall fill in a Declaration of Interests (DoI) form, which is also part of the application form for this expert pool. Information on how to fill in the form can be found in Annex II of this public call. The appointed experts will also be requested to sign declarations of confidentiality and commitment (Annex III).

2. OPERATION OF THE ECIBC WORKING GROUPS AND ITS SUBGROUPS

2.1. Remuneration

In case of on-site meetings, travel and subsistence expenses of the members participating in the activities will be reimbursed by the Commission. Reimbursement will be made in accordance with the provisions in force within the Commission.

Experts will in principle not be remunerated for the services they offer. However, the Commission may decide to pay for extraordinary activities, in terms of the amount of the work and compliance to tight deadlines, to achieve specific goals of the activities. This would amount to a maximum of 12 days per year, per expert (€450 per day, as of October 2022). If the Commission decides to pay for such extraordinary activities, the JRC will sign an expert contract with the experts.

2.2. Transparency

The ECIBC working groups and the subgroups will carry out activities by observing principles of transparency. All relevant documents will be published by the JRC on the Healthcare Quality public website³. In particular, the following data will be made available to the public:

- a) Full name of the person appointed as ECIBC working group and/or subgroup members and their brief CV,
- b) Rules of procedure,
- c) The members' declarations of interests, confidentiality, and commitment,
- d) Draft agendas and or agendas of meetings,
- e) Minutes of meetings, and
- f) Stakeholder's dialogue activities.

³ECIBC website

<https://healthcare-quality.jrc.ec.europa.eu/discover-ecibc/governance/ecibc-working-groups>

Exceptions to publication will be considered where it is deemed that disclosure of a document would undermine the protection of a public or private interest as defined in Article 4 of Regulation (EC) No 1049/2001⁴.

2.3. Confidentiality

The subgroup members are subject to the obligation of professional secrecy, which by virtue of the Treaties and the rules implementing them applies to all members.

Consequently, and in line with the Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2019/1396⁵, the subgroup members will not divulge information, including commercially sensitive or personal data, acquired as a result of the group's work, even after they have ceased to be members. They will sign a declaration of confidentiality to this effect. In line with the Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2019/1396, the subgroup members will comply with the Commission's security rules on the protection of EU classified and sensitive non-classified information, as set out in the Commission Decisions (EU, Euratom) 2015/443⁶ and 2015/444⁷.

Should the subgroup members fail to respect these obligations, the Commission may take all appropriate measures.

3. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Interested individuals are invited to submit their application using the appropriate online application form available on the Healthcare Quality website⁸. Applications must be completed in English.

Experts applying in their professional capacity are required to fill in the online application form designed for professionals. Persons applying as patients and/or caregivers are required to fill in the respective online application form designed for patients and/or caregivers only.

Supporting documents:

An application is only valid if sent by the indicated deadline and all the documents listed hereafter are included:

Guidance for completing the ECIBC Annual Declaration of Interests¹³ (DoI) form

I. INTRODUCTION

This guidance relates to the implementation of the provisions on independence and transparency of Commission Decision 2012/C 198/06¹⁴.

It shall give clear indications on how to declare any interest that could affect the ability of the European Commission Initiative on Breast Cancer (ECIBC) working group members and external experts to act in the public interest.

According to Decision 2012/C 198/06, the responsibility for declaring all relevant interests is placed on the individuals completing their declaration. A false or incomplete declaration may have consequences on the acts adopted by the Commission on the basis of the experts' advice, since this could be challenged before the Court of Justice/General Court under the conditions of Article 263 TFUE¹⁵.

Interests are declared as an indication if conflicts of interest (CoIs) could arise. The expert shall not assess whether a CoI is present. The assessment of whether a CoI exists will be performed by the CoI evaluation panel from the JRC.

¹³According to European Commission's Decision C(2016) 3301 establishing horizontal rules on the creation and operation of Commission expert groups, Articles 2(4) and 11 each member of an expert group has to complete a DoI form.

Note: A declared “interest” is not automatically considered to lead to a conflict of interest. It is well understood that, in general, individuals who are involved in a particular process have an inherent professional interest in the subject and in being involved in the process as such.

The following information covers the Declaration of Interests (DoI) form (version n°2) to be filled in by working group members and external experts.

II. WHAT TO DECLARE?

Experts shall declare past activities (over the last five years). The European Commission recognises that high quality and up-to-date scientific expertise is by nature based on prior experience, connection to the scientific world and involvement in current research. Therefore, having an interest does not necessarily mean having a CoI.

1. Ownership of shares or other investments

Ownership of shares or other investments in a company or other entity operating in a business that can be affected directly by the opinions of the respective ECIBC working group.

This includes holding any form of equity, bonds, and partnership interests in the capital of a company. The holding of financial interests connected with a pension scheme or other complex investment funds would not be considered a financial interest, provided that the individual has no influence on its financial management.

2. Employment

All forms of employment, part-time and full-time, either paid or unpaid, in any organisation having activities falling within the scope of the ECIBC.

3. Memberships

For example,

- Any participation in the internal decision-making body of a company, trade association or other private entity such as a non-profit organisation dealing with issues related to the scope of the ECIBC (e.g. board membership, directorship).
- Any paid or unpaid, past, present or envisaged activity in which the expert or his depended collaborators provided technical or scientific advice or services in domains of relevance for the work of the ECIBC.

4 and 5. Research

Any activity as investigator in research studies related to the ECIBC, including the drafting of research programmes or the selection of research projects and current funding of research in relation to matter or work financed by a private or public entity, including grants, rents, sponsorships and fellowships.

6. Intellectual property rights (IPR)

Rights granted to creators and owners of works that are the result of human intellectual creativity that bring personal financial benefit to the expert.

Only the IPR falling within the remit of the work of the ECIBC need be taken into account. These can be copyrights, patents, trademarks etc.

7. Interests of immediate family members

Known interests held by family members and relatives (spouse, parents, children, brothers and sisters, irrespective of whether they live at the same address or not) or other persons under the care of the members of the household of the expert.

8. Other activities

Any interest other than the above which can be perceived as a potential source of conflict in an activity included in the ECIBC working groups' remits.

It should be intended as any membership or affiliation other than the above which can be perceived as an interest in the field of activity of the respective ECIBC working group.

III. PUBLICATION

The DoI of the appointed members will be made public in accordance with the provisions on transparency foreseen by Decision 2012/C 198/06². These will be posted on the website of the Healthcare Quality Group dedicated to the ECIBC working groups.

COMPLIANCE WITH PROVISIONS ON PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

The European Commission processes personal data pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2018/1725¹⁶ of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies on the free movement of such data.

The specific processing of data included in the ECIBC DoI form by the JRC's Directorate F, Health, Consumers and Reference Materials, F1 Health in Society Unit, Healthcare Quality Group is covered by the notification DPR-EC-00656.1¹⁷, Data Protection Office public register.

ECIBC Declarations of confidentiality and commitment

NOTE:

The version included hereafter is a draft version for future declarations of confidentiality and commitment that members are expected to submit before being appointed as a working group member or as an external expert.

This version is made available for information only and is not required to be included as supporting documentation when submitting an application to the ECIBC expert pool.

Name:

I hereby declare that:

1. I am aware of my obligation to respect confidentiality and not to divulge any information acquired as a result of my work in one of the working groups of the European Commission Initiative on Breast Cancer (hereinafter, 'the group'), unless it is made publicly accessible by the JRC (Joint Research Centre). I will respect the confidential nature of the scientific opinions expressed by members of the group or other members during group meetings and discussions. I will not disclose such information even after my participation in the work of the group has ceased.
2. I am aware of the Commission's security rules for protecting European Union classified information and sensitive non-classified information, as laid down in Commission Decisions (EU, Euratom) 2015/443 and 2015/444. Should I receive confidential information or restricted information in the course and context of my duties for the group, I will treat it as strictly confidential and use it exclusively for the purpose for which it was made available. I will handle the information in accordance with the provided handling instructions and not divulge them to any third party.

The above implies that the undersigned:

- will not divulge, publish, or otherwise make available to any third party, information received from the group without prior written consent of the JRC, even after completion of a specific event or assignment. The duty of confidentiality exists vis-à-vis any third party, including employees, employers, affiliates or the general public;
- will not use information received from the group for personal benefit or the benefit of any third party;
- will ensure safe storage of the confidential or restricted information (in accordance with the corresponding handling instructions), by applying appropriate security measures if the information is managed electronically, and will not retain the information for longer than needed for the completion of an assignment within the group;

Name:

1. Commitment

While contributing to the activities in the working groups of the European Commission Initiative on Breast Cancer (hereinafter, 'the group'), I will:

- act independently in the public interest and make complete declarations of any direct or indirect interests that might be considered prejudicial to my independence;
- inform the JRC Scientific Secretariat if I take part in a working group/activity with interest in the field of breast cancer and/or in relation to the activities of the European Commission Initiative on Breast Cancer.
- comply with the group's rules on the handling of conflict of interest;
- contribute actively to the work of the group through working remotely and, when necessary, by attending meetings;
- conduct myself in exemplary manner in all activities linked to the group;
- comply with the rules on reimbursement of travel expenses and payment of allowances and indemnities in place in the Commission;
- ensure appropriate use of scientific publications provided by the JRC scientific secretariat and respect copyrights as outlined below;
- always contact the JRC Scientific Secretariat when communicating with the media, stakeholders, or the general public on a matter that falls within the group's remit.

2. Copyrights and library working tools

In case the undersigned is involved in the preparation of scientific outputs, she/he may receive from the JRC scientific publications and journals protected by copyrights as hand-outs or via e-mail.

The undersigned will be allowed to make limited use of journals and scientific publications but shall not, even after the termination of the activities within the group:

- distribute copies of articles and journals to third parties;
- use articles or journals for commercial purposes;
- use the materials for other purposes than the assignment with the group.

Duration: The validity of the present declaration is limited to the mandate of the group (at least five years) from the date of signature, unless the undersigned informs the JRC scientific secretariat on the termination of her/his activities within the group.
