

Francisco Tresserra

QASDG External Expert

Francisco Tresserra was graduated in Medicine School at Barcelona University in 1988 and became specialist in Pathology in 1993 at the Hospital Mutua de Terrassa and obtained the Phd degree for the University of Barcelona in 1994 and since this year has been working in the Pathology Department of Hospital Universitario Dexeus, where actually is the Chief of Service since 2003.

He is the secretary of the Sociedad Española de Senología y Patología Mamaria (SESPM) and secretary of the Fundacion Española de Senología (FES).

One of his areas of interest is the breast pathology. He has published more than 80 papers in international journals, 60 of them cited in Pubmed. He has also participated in books chapter of breast pathology guides and specialized breast meetings.

He has stayed for short period at NIH and Armed Forces Institutes of Pathology in GYN and Breast pathology area. He also helps as a technical expert in pathology and cytology for the Entidad Nacional de Acreditacion (ENAC).